

We're excited to announce our call for poetry submissions for the upcoming menu of the Poetry Phone!

Please carefully review the guidelines below before submitting your work.

Submission Guidelines:

Poem Length: Each submitted poem should have a reading time of no more than 2 minutes.

Content Appropriateness: The subject matter and language used in your poems must be suitable for a general public audience.

Submission Limit: Each poet may submit a maximum of two (2) poems for consideration in this round.

Submission Deadline: All submissions must be received by June 23, 2025, at midnight (Eastern Daylight Time).

How to Submit: Please submit your poem(s) using the online submission form found HERE.

What Happens Next?

Recording: If your poem is selected, you will be contacted and asked to record your poem.

Final Selection: The Poetry Phone team reserves the right to make the final decision regarding which poems are presented and their duration on the phone line.

Menu Rotation: The selection of poems featured on the Poetry Phone will change throughout the year to reflect the different seasons.

Keep an eye out for the announcement of our new summer poetry menu!
