Dear All,

83 Monument is truly an historic location, and I have the utmost confidence that the combination of a local highly regarded Builder, Boynton-Brennan, whose reputation rests on their latest project, and The HDC, keeping our District historic since 1960 will result in an outstanding outcome for this location a few doors down from my own house. We would probably agree that the house could use an "update", inside and out in accordance with maintaining and preserving significant structures.

Thankyou,

John R. Hickling
